

WESTERN Interiors & DESIGN

AN EXCITING RANGE OF MATERIALS, from bronze, nickel and copper to leather, stone and crystal, enhances your design possibilities. Different hardware textures can introduce another layer of interest to your interiors, whether sleek and contemporary or rustic and traditional.

1 Contemporary stainless-steel lever from Baldwin. 2 Brass Fusital H 352 handle with polished chrome finish by Odile Decq and Benoit Cornette for Valli & Valli. 3 9454 brass Bin pull with polished nickel finish from Omnia. 4 Anodized aluminum knob by Cutler Anderson Architects for Reveal Designs. 5 Bamboo Grip handle with satin white-bronze finish from Sun Valley Bronze. 6 Core Potato handle with satin antiqued silver finish from MNG Designer Hardware. 7 Butterfly pull with satin-nickel finish from E. R. Butler. 8 Nickel Branch pull from Michael Aram. 9 Tag chrome-plated zinc handle from IKEA. Teak risers from Shelter.

NEW LARGE-SCALE DOORS

and cabinets need oversized hardware for balance and drama. Rich oil-rubbed finishes also lend warmth and style.

1 Bamboo Push Plate with satin-silicon bronze finish from Sun Valley Bronze. 2 Iron Accent lever with rust patina from Hardware Renaissance. 3 Williamsburg Knot oil-rubbed copper pull from Pullware. 4 Getako aluminum pull with antiqued black patina from Eleek. 5 Oil-rubbed bronze knocker by Cutler Anderson Architects for Reveal Designs. 6 Arizona river-rock knobs from Providence Artworks. 7 Classic antiqued brass latch from Restoration Hardware. 8 Twickenham chocolate leather knob from Turnstyle Designs. 9 Silicon bronze Maddox door plate with crystal knob from Rocky Mountain Hardware. Teak risers from Shelter.

FOR RESOURCES INFORMATION, GO TO WWW.WESTERNINTERIORS.COM.

